RG104 E-1 Box 125 Oct-Dec 1881

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C., November 12, 1881.

Hon. H. C. Burchard,
Director of the Mint.

Sir:

Referring to your letter of the 18th ultimo, stating that the copper and copper nickel cents issued under Acts in force prior to the passage of the coinage act of 1873, now in the possession of the Superintendent of the Mint, held for the Treasurer of the United States, can be recoined not only without loss but with a gain and that it has been the practice at the Mint to recoin such coins, you are hereby directed to cause all those now on hand to be recoined into five cent nickel pieces, and any previous instructions discontinuing the coinage of the latter are hereby so modified as to permit to this extent, the further coinage of five cent nickels.

RG104 E-1 Box 125 Oct-Dec 1881

Very respectfully,
H. F. French,
Acting Director.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 125

Treasury Department,
Office of the Secretary,
Washington, D.C.,
November 12, 1881

Hon. H.C. Burchard,
Director of the Mint.

Sir:

Referring to your letter of the 18th ultimo, stating that the copper and copper nickel cents issued under Acts in force prior to the passage of the coinage act of 1873, now in the possession of the Superintendent of the Mint, held for the Treasurer of the United States, can be recoined not only without loss but with a gain and that it has been the practice at the Mint to recoin such coin, you are hereby directed to cause all those now on hand to be recoined into five cent nickel pieces, and any previous instructions discontinuing the coinage of the latter are hereby so modified as to permit to this extend, the further coinage of five cent nickels.

Very respectfully,
H.F. French
Acting Director.